

Please stop the deregulation of the media communication. The ownership rules that are currently in effect allow a system of checks and balances that give the public access to many different viewpoints. To deregulate this system will homogenize the media output and directly effect our democracy.